Folks were enjoying Canada day along the waterfront in Vancouver.

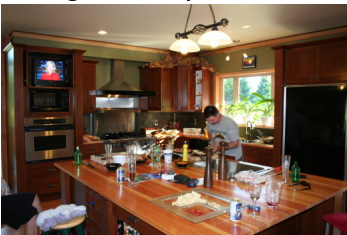

Could the weather have been any more perfect?

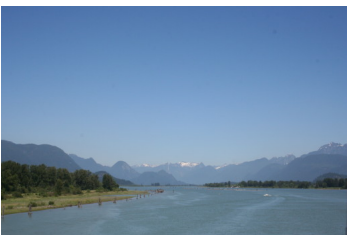

One little boy, Makai, finds the artificial fruit in this basket very entertaining!

Juergen is a professional chef and his home kitchen is definitely enviable!

This is a view of the Coastal Mountains taken from the Pitt River Bridge. I took this pic while on the back of the bike cruising along at 80kms.

This was taken from the back of the bike as we drove along the waterfront in Vancouver. The sphere is the Science Centre.

This is the Alpha Romeo Spyder that Ian and Rick picked up in Washington yesterday. It looks like Makai will enjoy it!
