This is the route we took today to our destination, the Nk'Mip RV Park in Osoyoos, BC from Mission

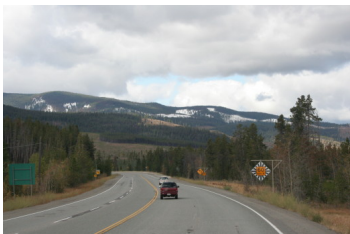

Karley and Ian's house without a Moho in the driveway...look at all that space!!!

Makai, forever the helper, was ready to give Grandpa a hand if he needed it.

As we drove east and climbed in elevation, we encountered a dusting of snow in the distance

Our drive today was beautiful, lots of scenery, and I was playing with my camera!

This is the Crowsnest Pass Highway (or Highway 3) and we are heading east nearing Keremeos.

It becomes evident that we are approaching some fertile real estate as we near Keremeos.
